GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS BAILEY TO CREDIT UNION COMMISSION

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed K. Ray Bailey of Fairview to the North Carolina Credit Union Commission.

Bailey is a president Emeritus of Asheville-Buncombe Technical Community College. He was awarded the Order of the Long Leaf Pine in 2006 and Community College President of the Year in 2005. Bailey earned his Bachelor's degree in social sciences from Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro and his Master's degree in educational administration from Western Carolina University.

The commission has authority to review, approve, or modify any action taken by the administrator of credit unions in the exercise of all powers, duties, and functions vested by law in or exercised by the administrator of credit unions under the credit union laws of the state. The commission has seven members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
